ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Most Rev. George W. Ahr, S.T.D., Most Rev. John C. Reiss, D.D., J.C.D., V.G., Most Rev. Michael J. Dudick, D.D., Most Rev. Peter L. Gerety, D.D., Rev. James Patrick McManimon, Ph.D., Rev. James E. Coley, Mrs. Carolyn Leaver, and all who contributed to this new beginning, this new spirit, this new dedication within our diocese, we humbly and gratefully give thanks on this auspicious and historic occasion.

We are indebted to so many people for helping in all sorts of ways in a huge and terrifying task that we despair of providing a suitable tribute.

Bishop Ahr and Bishop Reiss have been unfailingly courteous and generous in their endorsement and keen interest, but what does not appear to the casual eye, and calls for endless gratitude, is the immense care they gave in teaching several courses over these past three years.

The psalmist comes close to the truth when he writes "He rejoiceth like a giant in running his course," and we, all of us, rejoice with him. Given to timeless days and nights, he is never far removed from the diaconate. With fierce, quick and indefatigable energy Father Mac has maintained a passion for steadfast reliance; building and nurturing our program through these initial years. A trusting and efficient person of almost limitless expansiveness, he is receptive to new ideas, always straining to push back the frontiers of ignorance or inadequacy and extend intellectual horizons. Father Mac embraces all in untrammelled openness. This disarming genuineness and sincerity, posited upon a deep respect for all, shows forth a man of faith, one who loves people. His is an expansive mind, and he has the heart to match it. The diaconate, which is in his blood, continues to be an absorbing passion, and he its devoted, outgoing, compassionate, adventurous, un-constrained and articulate spokesman. There is a greatness about him which has allowed us to grow firmly from God-roots, openly encouraged to help others forward on the beautiful, exciting and joyful development of man before God and his fellow men. We will remain forever indebted to his effectiveness in our personal, pastoral and theological development. He has so deeply colored our whole lives, leading us to an appreciation that the whole of life can be a sacrament, every meal a reminder of the Last Supper, every day a new baptism.

We especially thank so many of the clergy, laity and religious who brought depth and stability to our program by their kind assistance, dedication, and support, through interviewing teams, faculty, staff, spiritual direction, discussion leaders, facilitators, preceptors, seminar groups:

Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. Frain, Rev. Msgr. William F. Fitzgerald, Rev. Msgr. Eugene B. Kelly, Rev. Msgr. William E. Maguire, Rev. Msgr. Theodore A. Opdenaker, and Rev. Msgr. Leonard R. Toomey.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

BISHOP

Lord God, hear our petitions and lend your gracious help to what we are about to do. We have judged these men worthy to carry out the ministry: We ask you to make them holy with your blessing. Through Christ our Lord.

LAYING-ON OF HANDS

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

The bishop extends his hands over the new deacons as he asks God to strengthen them so that they may faithfully carry out their new ministry.

INVESTITURE: STOLE AND DALMATIC

The deacons are now vested for the first time in the stole and dalmatic. The vesting is done by priests as a sign of welcome into the new ministry of the diaconate. The wives or family members of the new deacons will present the dalmatic and stole to the priest who will do the vesting.

PSALM 84

Gelineau

Antiphon I is sung by cantor, then by the people

How lovely is your dwelling place.

Lord, God of hosts.

Verse 1 sung by the choir

My soul is longing and yearning, is yearning for the courts of the Lord. My heart and my soul ring out their joy to God, the living God. repeat antiphon 1

Verse 2 sung by the choir

The sparrow herself finds a home and the swallow a nest for her brood; she lays her young by your altars, Lord of hosts, my King and my God. repeat antiphon 1

Go, ye, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. MATTHEW 28:19

Verse 3      sung by the choir

They are happy who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise. They are happy, whose strength is in you, in whose hearts are the roads to Sion.

repeat antiphon 1

Verse 4      sung by the choir

As they go through the Bitter Valley, they make it a place of springs, they walk with ever growing strength. They will see the God of gods in Sion. repeat antiphon 1

Verse 5      sung by the choir

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer, give ear, O God of Jacob. Turn your eyes, O God, our shield, look on the face of your anointed. repeat antiphon 1

Verse 6      sung by the choir

One day within your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. The threshold of the house of God I prefer to the dwellings of the wicked. repeat antiphon 1

For the Lord God is a rampart, a shield; he will give us his favor and glory. The Lord will not refuse any good to those who walk without blame. choir/antiphon 2

"They will draw new strength from the gift of the Holy Spirit and will provide help for the bishop and his priests as ministers of the word, liturgy and of charity, making themselves servants to all men."

"With the help of God they will carry out these duties in such a way that you will recognize them as the disciples of the One who came to serve rather than to be served."

"As deacons you are ministers of Jesus Christ who was recognized among his disciples as the One who served."

"Do the will of God generously and then you will perform your service to God and men in charity and gladness of Him and of heart!"

40 deacons ordained

Forty deacons, constituting the first large class in the Trenton Diocese, file into St. Mary's Cathedral, where they were ordained yesterday by Bishop George W. Ahr. Deacons are laymen ordained as ministers with power to participate in liturgical aspects of weddings, funerals, baptisms and other rites. All but four are married; the four unmarried deacons took vows of celibacy and the others are barred from remarrying if their wives die. It was believed to be the largest group of deacons ordained in New Jersey in one ceremony.

Catholic priest's son is ordained

NEW YORK (AP) — The son of a Roman Catholic priest was ordained yesterday, an almost unprecedented occasion in modern times.

The Rev. Thomas Holahan Sr., 52, placed the priestly vestments on Thomas Holahan Jr., 29, who was one of nine persons ordained at St. Paul the Apostle Church in Manhattan. Then they gave communion together.

The new priest said he had joined the Capuchin-Franciscans before his father, who joined in 1968 after the death of his wife. The son said he left the order to attend school, later entering the Paulists.

"IT WAS MORE or less doing my thing, it was my decision," the younger Holahan said after the ceremony. "If we had been in there together, it would have been a different experience. But since I made my own choice, I had a feeling of being very independent and also a feeling of fraternity between us now."

It was believed to be one of the few times since the medieval period, lasting from 500 to 1500 A.D., that a priest's son had become a priest in the Latin (western) rite of Roman Catholicism. The (western) rite requires its priests to be celibate.

In 1968, John Paul Habiger and his sons Matthew and Benedict were ordained at St. Benedict's Abbey in Atchison, Kan. The father died in 1973 and the sons are still serving the church.

Most fishermen would regard casting the net on the other side of the boat a truly absurd suggestion for catching fish in empty waters. But the apostles did as the Lord instructed and their net was filled. Here is a message for all Christians. No matter how empty our lives, if we accept the guidance of the Lord, they will be filled. We have no reason to despair, even in seemingly impossible circumstances. Cast the net again! The haul may surprise you.

3rd Sunday of Easter

APRIL 24, 1977

WORTHY IS THE LAMB WHO WAS SLAIN!

Continuing in the line established last week, today's second reading depicts John's vision of the risen Christ in heavenly glory. The Book of Revelation exhibits a rich variety of symbolism. Last week Jesus was described as a priestly and kingly figure (long robe, golden sash); today he is presented as a lamb-slain, returned to life and still bearing marks of his sacrifice. The lamb symbolism is rich in meaning already given to it in earlier Scripture. We can think of Second Isaiah's Suffering Servant "like a lamb before its shearers" and of the paschal lamb of the exodus; and other apocalyptic literature describes a lamb who is conqueror of the world. Jesus receives praise from every creature in God's cosmos.

FEED MY LAMBS, FEED MY SHEEP

In today's Scripture Jesus is depicted both as a lamb (second reading) and as a shepherd (gospel). Now exalted to heavenly glory, Jesus lays the charge of the flock upon Peter. This is one of the "primacy" texts that tell of Peter's special role and responsibility in Jesus' Church.

PERFECT GIVING

Planned giving is the only intelligent way to make our giving to God as easy as possible. When we determine a given amount that we can give God, then we can make the necessary plans to make sure we give it. One sure way to assure that we don't forget God is to make our first payday payment to him. Put God on the top of your list for bill payments . . . Be a Perfect Giver.

JEST KIDDING

Asked why it was no problem to get money from his father while other students found it difficult, a college freshman replied, "It's a snap. I just threaten to come home."

MODEL MEETING

A model meeting:
Participated in by everybody;
Monopolized by nobody;
Where everybody is somebody.

NEED FOR CHRISTIAN ACTION

What is Christian action? Three things must be said: It is action already begun. It began when Jesus walked the earth and poured out His life in loving service. It is action going on now. All who are called to be Christ's disciples are "fellow-workers" with Him. It is action to be completed. What Christ began, He will finish. Final victory will be His.

SENTENCE SERMON

An old Danish proverb tells us: "You may light another's candle at your own without loss." And so you may! Sharing the light you have with another increases the light around.

THE GREAT EASTER TRUTH is not that we are to live newly after death, but that we are to be new here and now by the power of the resurrection.

GRATITUDE

God gave you the gift of 86,400 seconds today. Have you used one of them to say, "Thank You"?
